A TAILOR'S TALE

A magnificent historic building dating back to 1856. In that year, Mr. Adolph Wilhelm Krasnapolsky first opened a coffee house on the site that is now Grand Hotel Krasnapolsky. As the café grew in popularity, he then added rooms for rent and later rebuilt it into a modern hotel. The hotel wears its history proudly with images from the old days. The interior design of our bar The Tailor pays tribute to the first craftsmanship of Mr. Krasnapolsky: tailoring. Other indulging gastronomic experiences can be enjoyed at The White Room by Jacob Jan Boerma, the hotel's exclusive Michelin starred dining experience and Grand Café Krasnapolsky.

Along with 402 contemporary guest rooms, over 2000 square meters of meeting space and the Anantara Spa for those seeking ultimate relaxation, Anantara Grand Hotel Krasnapolsky Amsterdam has it all, to ensure that you have a memorable stay with an unforgettable local touch.
